

December 19, 2011

Dear Parents and/or Guardians,

This will be my last newsletter for 2011. I hope that you all have a wonderful and safe holiday. The children will not come back to school until January 9. While they are at home, I encourage you to have your child read every day for at least twenty minutes. Also, have them practice telling time to the hour and half hour for you as well as practice counting mixed coins. You may also want to give your child a chance to journal over the holiday. Your child could write about something fun that happened to them at any time during the break.

On Monday, I sent home the spelling words for the test on January 12. I will have them on Spelling City in case you lost the words. This is a review week so there will not be any challenge words on the website.

Please contact me via email if you have any questions over the break. I do check my email from home.
